Socks

Next week (13th-17th November), we will be taking part in Anti-Bullying week. We will hold a whole school assembly on Monday and then take part in activities within our classes.

The theme for this year is

'Make a Noise About Bullying'.

To mark the start of Anti-Bullying week, on Monday, we would like to invite you all to wear odd socks, as a sign that we are all individual and unique!

Please follow this link if you would like some more information:

Pants

We will be learning about the NSPCC 'Pants Rule' with Pantosaurus during this week as well. Pantosaurus has helped 1.5 million parents talk PANTS and keep their children safe from abuse.

Developed in consultation with children, parents, carers and teachers, Talk PANTS is here to help children understand their body belongs to them and they should tell an adult they trust if anything makes them feel upset or worried.

Please see the attached leaflet for more information or follow this link:
